INNOVATIVE CLIENT SPECIFIC SOLUTIONS

The TOPICWORX PLATFORM was designed to provide the client with clarity when they need it most. Dashboards that communicate risk information visually, empower users with drill-down functionality, share insights more effectively and increase understanding to help them interact with their intelligence and make informed decisions quickly. The TOPICWORX MOBILE ALERTS APP is a location-based app. Developed and managed by TopicWorx. The App utilizes your current location to determine if there's palpable threat or a possible risk in close proximity, that could impact your in- transit safety/security.

TACTICAL & OPERATIONAL RISK INTELLIGENCE

TopicWorx will provide the client with EARLY WARNING ALERTS and situational awareness of current issues and trends in their respective areas of interest within a specific geographical location, which could have an impact on business operations, e.g. Pandemics, Planned protest marches, Strike actions, Picketing, Ethnic tensions, Extremist threats, Xenophobia, Other social and political tension and unrest, Major road closures, Major disruption in terms of services, public transport, communication networks etc.

STRATEGIC BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE

The actual time horizon for Strategic Intelligence ultimately depends on the industry and movement within. This type of intelligence involves the IDENTIFICATION OF WEAK SIGNALS AND THE PROVISION OF STRATEGIC EARLY WARNING INTELLIGENCE. Our model is multi-dimensional and dependant on the utilization of multiple independent sources.
